There is just over two weeks to go until our Bloom festival, and we're delighted to share that the digital festival brochure is now available!

If you're not familiar with Bloom, it is West Midlands District festival taking place on Saturday 4 July, 10am-4pm, at Trinity Methodist Church, Codsall. Open to all ages, the day will bring people together from across the District for worship, workshops, creative activities, food, conversation and opportunities to connect.

The brochure contains everything people need to know about the day, including details of workshops, worship, creative activities, food, family-friendly experiences, practical information and much more. It's a great way for people to get a flavour of what Bloom is all about and begin planning their day.

We would be really grateful if you could help us share the brochure across your circuit and churches. Please feel free to forward it to anyone who may be interested.

To make promotion as easy as possible, we've also created a Communications Pack containing ready-made resources including social media posts, newsletter content, church notice slides, posters, flyers and email graphics. Most of the hard work has already been done - we simply need your help to get the information into people's hands.

Bloom is a free festival celebrating faith, creativity, community and creation, and we'd love to welcome people from across the District on Saturday 4 July. We would be very grateful if you could encourage people to book tickets in advance since this will help us plan catering and make sure everything is ready to welcome you on the day.

Thank you very much for your support.

Please contact Anne if you would like the links for the digital brochure, tickets or the communications pack.
